An tU The O'Neill,

Humbly acknowledging my obligations to my Divine Lord Jesus Christ, who sustained our Fathers and indeed our Mothers through centuries of Trial, heroic and unremitting struggles against the enemies of our divine authority, on to our final end, to whom the actors of Man and Republics must be referred to, who fought to promote for the common good, with all due observance of Prudence, Charity and the Rule of Law, who established the freedom of the individual restricted only by humanitarian Law, adopted, enacted through Constitution and by mutual agreement on Supranational Law, established unalienable rights and the indivisible dignity of Man.

Daly & Colbert fought to see Éirí
A Fundamental Right for me and you.
The right of Right, not Right of Might
To protect even the devil as if it were you.
If the Law does not protect all, then who, You?

Nullus liber homo capiatur, vel imprisonetur, aut disseisiat, aut utlagetur, aut exuletur, aut aliquo modo destruat, nec supereum ibimus, nec super eum mittimus, nisi per legale iudicium parium suorum vel per legem terre. Nulli vendemus, nulli negabimus, aut differemus rectum aut iusticiam.

The delivery of our country from infinite murders, wicked and detestable policies by which the Kingdom was hitherto governed, nourished in absurdity and ignorance, maintained in barbarity and incivility and consequently of infinite evils which are too lamentable to be rehearsal.

Most Christian and fearless men, the Great and Good God has this day in His Divine generosity more than granted our most earnest and frequent prayers and petitions. We have ever been praying to God and his Saints to grant us to fight the Protestants on equal terms. For this have we offered up our prayers; for this have we made our offerings, and now we are not only equal, but actually superior in numbers. Therefore, you, who have when inferior in numbers, routed the heretical columns are now in superior numbers pitted against them.

I, for my part hold that victory lies not in senseless armour, nor in the vain din of cannon, but in living courageous souls. Remember how often when you were not so well equipped or disciplined you have overcome greater generals and forces, and even Bagnal himself. The English never could compare with the Irish in spirit, courage or steadfastness in battle and the Irish who will be fighting against you will be despirited by the consciousness of their crime and schism in fighting against the Catholic faith. Here you are defend faith, fatherland, children & wives. On then with God heart with the help of God and his Saints.

Dear Dr Hanley

I am writing again on behalf of our client Derek O'Baroid, please see attached authority to act and copy of my letter of 30/09/2024.

Your secretary called me the day the letter was received by yourselves, and I explained we are looking for a response in writing please.

As previously mentioned,

We are assisting Derek to apply for both Disability Allowance and the medical card.

He dropped both forms to your practice for completion some months back and has not heard back as yet. As I am sure you understand this is quite worrying for him, especially to be without a medical card. We would greatly appreciate if you could complete the forms and return to him ASAP, you will see his address on the ATA.

Dear

I further reviewed Derek in Willowdale today on the 21/05/2024 and I also saw him on 23/04/2024.

As per usual today, Derek was dressed in black and carrying a decorated walking stick.

He told me he had tried Olanzapine and that it had no effect - that it was like water. He did not take it as per the prescription but took an increasing dose - one tablet on the first day, two on the second day, three on the 3rd day, on four the 4th day and then stopped when they were gone. The prescription was for 14 tablets in total.

While waiting to be reviewed Derek sat in a quiet manner in the waiting room.

At review, he was quite abrasive and insulting and this has been his usual manner of interaction. He expressed doubt about my competency as a psychiatrist and was not willing to meaningfully engage in the assessment. For example, some of my questions were answered with "that's none of your business".

Derek said he was sleeping okay.

He mentioned that he plans to take a case against the HSE for various charges.

On mental examination Derek was confrontational in manner and insulting. His mood was subjectively okay and objectively he was irritable. He was not overtly psychotic. He lacked insight

My impression remains that Derek has hypomanic symptoms as part of a Bipolar Affective Disorder. There has been no escalation in his symptoms over the period of his attendance at Willowdale. There may be certain personality traits at play as well.

DTA

Derek is not currently willing to engage with our service in a meaningful therapeutic way. In my opinion, he does not currently meet criteria for Mental Health Act admission.

I am discharging him from our caseload as he is not deriving any benefit from outpatient attendance. Please feel free to contact us in the future if you have concerns.

Yours sincerely,

Dear Dr.

I wish to update you regarding Derek whom I reviewed in Willowdale today on the 11/04/2024.

Derek presented for review today and sat very quietly in the waiting room for about an hour while waiting to be seen.

He came into the review carrying a shillelagh walking stick. Derek was loud and confrontational for much of the interview. He was making derogatory comments for example - "do you speak English, you are so stupid".

Derek told me that he is still living in shared accommodation. He was very derogatory regarding . He was also derogatory about his Derek was demanding proof and documentation about his illness in a very grandiose manner. I have advised him of the diagnosis of BPAD and that in my opinion he is currently hypomanic. He wanted a copy of his notes and I explained the Freedom of Information procedure to him.

Derek was intimidating at times. For example, when asked what supports he had, he banged the shillelagh stick off the ground.

Surprisingly enough, after further discussion, Derek agreed to accept a prescription for Olanzapine 10 mg at night and he agreed to attend for further review next week.

On mental state examination Derek was dressed in black carrying a shillelagh walking stick. He was very loud and confrontational. His speech was increased in volume and flow but he was able to control it at times. His mood was subjectively okay and objectively he presented as irritable and elated. He had no suicidal ideation. He was possibly paranoid regarding his _____ but he was not overtly psychotic and his thinking was quite organised. He appeared to have partial insight.

I hope he will give the Olanzapine a trial and he has agreed to come for follow up next Wednesday 17th April.

Please feel free to contact us if you have any concerns in the interim and as previously mentioned Derek may end up needing admission via the Mental Health Act but hopefully if he follows the treatment plan as above his symptoms may settle.

Yours sincerely,

Re: Derek O Barroad, 24, Greenfields Rosbrien Limerick
Date of Birth: 09/03/1968 MRN: 14/0167

Dear Dr.

Thank you for referring your patient to our service. He was assessed in Willowdale on 13/03/2024.

Presenting Complaint: Referred for his ongoing care for depression with psychotic symptoms.

History of Presenting Complaint: Derek attending the appointment today alone and reported: "people get intimidated by me". "I have lived in Germany, I am strong, not soft like the people here". "I am in perfect health".

Derek moved/deported to Ireland from Germany and was working in UHL as a waste manager recently suspended due to aggressive behaviour. Derek further displays signs of aggression and confrontational behaviour along with over familiarity and pressure of speech. He had a previous admission in Germany for 6 months, Derek said it was in 2021 but also reports "it was not a proper doctor who admitted me, they were doing a survey in research". He also is experiencing impaired sleep and excessive energy but won't agree on taking any medications.

Past History: Derek engaged with psychiatric facility in Germany and had an admission for 6 months in 2021 (but not sure).

Medical History: None as reported by Derek.

Addiction Problem: In the past he agreed on using alcohol and smoking cigarettes but currently "I don't smoke, I only drink zero alcohol".

Family History:

Personal History: Born and raised in Limerick, "I move to Germany because this country did not have much to offer". "Immigration was the solution" and did not disclose any further information on his schooling or on his growing up. He did not report or relay any major trauma or illness. Not much detail history of the schooling was shared "I am educated" no details on any course mentioned. Currently on suspension from a job in UHL. He worked as a landscaper in Germany.

Current Relationship:

Current Social Circumstances: He is not working currently and living in a rented place "social department cannot solve my problems", "I have a lot of hobbies, read old books and I read them in the Park, am I allowed ? ". He says he is quite functional nowadays, he won't go to work but roams around a lot, he would take a bus to nearby parks, yesterday he visited Adare.

Forensic History: He has none.

Motivation to engage with the Services: He is not motivated enough to engage with the services. He would not accept any medications help "I am not ill, I don't need medications".

Mental State Examination: Casually dressed, wearing blue denim jeans, blue denim shirt . He was wearing a waist belt. Hypomanic and sitting with open posture, displayed over familiarity, currently moving around the room and pointing to the adverts and demanding to see the letter that was written by the GP and said that it was the wrong information written to ourselves. His speech was pressured, increased in tone and volume. Mood objectively and subjectively anxious, hypomanic with uncontrolled effect. Delusions of grandiosity, racing of thoughts along with tangentially present. No perceptual disturbance but no insight regarding illness.

Impression: Current symptoms of Derek classify as bipolar affective disorder, current episode hypomania.

Formulation: Male in his mid-fifties, was referred by the GP for assessment. Previous episode of depression with psychosis. Derek attended the appointment alone and displayed signs and symptoms of hypomania, over familiarity, confrontational behaviour, racing of thoughts, pressure of speech and grandiosity. He moved / deported from Germany following his admission which according to him was for 6 months. Currently he is denying to any offered treatment.

Care plan as discussed :

1. Commenced on Olanzapine 10 mg but denied by the patient.
2. Stop Venlafaxine.
- 3.
4. To consider option under Mental Health Act admission, probably through authorised officer.
- 5.

Am Freitag der 23/02/24 ist einem Streife der Garda Síochána mich vor mein Aufenthaltsort angetroffen. Die Leiterin der Einsatzgruppe hat sich vorgestellt und dem zweck der Einsatz geschildert. Sie mit Kollegen haben das Haus betreten und mit dem Hausherr besprochen. Ein wewitere College wurde bei mir abgestellt. Er hat die Information bekommen daB ich Ihm geben wollte, zur seine Frage was Ich arbeite, antwortete Ich daB, „I design Bombs“. Der gelassene und aufmerksam Garda erwiderte „we need alot of them these days“.

Nach meiner Erfahrungen mit dem Garda dem Abend sowie die Deutsche Polizei der Vergangenheit, war Ich erleichtert, daB Ich zwei Beamte der Freiden und Ordnung angetroffen habe. Ich habe den Beamter geschildert, daB Ich in der letzte Zeit durch der Hauseigentumer belastigt wurde. Am morgen der 23/02/24 wurde Ich gegen 05:45 durch der unbegleitete Hausherr beschimft und verbalgedroht wurde. Ich entwickele Waffensysteme gegen der moderen BattleTank/Panzer. Der Herr hat diese Arbeit und mein Kaffe unterbrochen. Ich habe das Zimmer um 07:20 Verlassen.

Der Hausherr hat sich in der letzte Monate immer Auffalliger verhalten. Da nach ruckkehr in dem Zimmer habe um 17:27 habe Ich festgestellt daB nicht abgesprochene Anderungen in das Zimmer vorgenommen wurden sind. Ich bin sofort zur Garda in Henry Str. Marchiert. Dort habe Ich kein Abhilfe bekommen.

Nach ruckkehr zur Zimmer habe Ich das Raum abgeräumt und mein Eigentum im Oberestockwerk in einem abschlieBbares Zimmer unter gebracht. Beim zusammen raumen habe Ich fest gestellt das die vfolgende gegenstanden nicht mehr vorhanden war:

*Nullus liber homo capiatur, vel Imprisonetur, aut disseisiatur, aut Utlagetur, aut exuletur, aut aliquo Modo destruatur, nec super eum
Ibimus, nec super eum mittemus, Nisi per legale iudicium parium Suorum vel per legem terrae. Nulli vendemus, nulli negabimus Aut

2. Ritterkruze 1914-18
3. Fransosiche Ehre Medale Verdun Feb 21 1916
4. British Victoria Cross
5. Schussel meiner verstorbenen Mutter

Die Schussel hat ein erheblichen sentimentalischen Wert. Nach der brutallenen Angriff an meine Mutter wobei die 89 jährige zusammen geschlagen wurde, und über die Straße geschliffen wurde, hat meine Mutter diese Schussel mir per Post geschickt. Es war und bleibt ein Leeren Schussel. Der Garda und DePP haben kein Tatter feststellen können.

Dínit an duine tá dínit an duine dosháraithe. Ní mór an dínit sin a urramú agus a chosaint.

Mit der Beschränkung auf Mord, Totschlag, erpresserischen Menschenraub und Geiselnahme hat der Gesetzgeber eine Auswahl an Straftaten vorgenommen, die ihm besonders gefährlich erscheinen und dem terroristischen Kernbereich zuzurechnen sein sollen (MuKoStGB/Schäfer/Anstötz, 4. Aufl. 2021, § 89a Rn. 17). Auch wenn fraglich ist, ob diese sich an § 129a Abs. 1 StGB orientierende Auswahl den Kern terroristischen Handelns abschließend trifft, ist eine Erweiterung des Katalogs im Rahmen der Auslegung nicht zulässig, weil sie die Wortlautgrenze überschreitet (MúKoStGB/Scháfer/Anstótz, a.a.O. Rn. 17).

Aus dem im Prozessrecht geltenden Gebot von Treu und Glauben Hlwf. § 242 BGB, ist ein Rechtsschutzinteresse zu bejahen, solange der Rechtsschutzsuchende gegenwärtig betroffen ist und mit seinem Rechtsmittel ein konkretes praktisches Ziel erreichen kann.

Art. 47 EU enthält ein Grundrecht auf effektiven und möglichst lückenlosen richterlichen Rechtsschutz gegen Akte der öffentlichen Gewalt. Der ebenso knappe wie strikte Wortlaut spricht zunächst dafür, dass der von Art. 47 EU gewährte Schutz absolut ist.

Widerstand ist nicht, Widerstand wird. Er mag mit leisen Zweifeln beginnen an dem, was man einmal für wahr gehalten, was man einmal geglaubt hat. Von einem bestimmten Punkt an braucht Widerstand jedoch Mut zum Handeln.

Der Lust Schwierigkeiten zu überwinden gehört dem Mathematiker, der Mut die Vulgarität des Unrechts zu besiegendem Kreiger.

Wie wurde Ich mich verhalten, wenn Ich wusste, dass der Preis meines Handelns Gefangnis, Folter oder gar das Ende meines eigenen Lebens sein kann? Brauchte Ich diesen Mut auf, und besaße Ich ihn auch noch in der entscheidenden Stunde? Eindeutig ja, und immer wider gern.

Ich beantrage:

Ich schwöre auf den höheren Werten der hessischen Verfassung, des Grundgesetzes der Bundesrepublik Deutschland, der Präambels des EU-Vertrags Artikel 1, 1a EU-Vertrag, Agus Bunreacht Na hEireann und diese zu wahren, zu würdigen und durchzusetzen.

Sei unser Gott uns gnädig. Dulce bellum inexperties.

Ich bin obdachlos, zahlungsunfähig, kreditunwürdig und sehe dem Hungerstod entgegen, da ich keinen Anspruch auf Sozialhilfe der Bundesrepublik Deutschland habe.

Das Land Hessen begehrt, vertreten durch das Finanzamt Hofheim im Taunus, einen Betrag in Höhe von 39.930,76 Euro. Durch eine Zwangsvollstreckungsmaßnahme, die Pfändungs- und Einziehungsverfügung vom 14.08.2014, Nr.: 1180/2014-EHB 1, gerichtet an die Frankfurter Sparkasse, meine Hausbank, s. Anlage 1 und 2.

Weiter existiert eine Pfändungs- und Einziehungsverfügung vom 14.08.2014, Nr.: 1177/2014-EHB 1, die an meinen gegenwärtigen Auftraggeber gerichtet ist, gerichtet auf sämtliche vertragliche Ansprüche, vergangene wie auch zukünftige. Diesen erheblichen Einschränkungen meiner Grundrechte, Art. 12 GG, Art. 2 Abs. 1 GG.

Die genannten Vorschriften der AO in beiden Vollstreckungsmaßnahmen genügen nicht der Form des Art. 19 Abs. 1 GG.

Ich fühle mich verpflichtet gem. Art. 6 Abs. 2 GG, §§ 1603, 631 BGB meine Verpflichtung nach den genannten Vorschriften aufrecht zu erhalten. Das werde ich auch tun bis ich am Hungerstod sterbe.

Ich beantrage die Aussetzung sämtlicher genannter Vollstreckungsmaßnahmen, da diese in meinen Augen rechtswidrig sind. Die betroffenen Einkommenssteuerbescheide sind im laufenden Einspruchsverfahren für die Jahre 2007-2013.

Die Pfändungs- und Einziehungsverfügungen begründen sich auf die Einspruchsentscheidung, s. Anlage 5. Diese Einkommensteuerbescheide sind ersetzt worden durch Anl. 6, Bescheid 2010 vom 07.01.2013, S. 4. Diese und sämtliche zusammenhängenden Bescheide befinden sich im aktiven Einspruchsverfahren, da diese falsch sind wg. Fehlender Vorsorgeaufwendungen, Falschangaben zum Kindergeld, s. Anl. 7.

Da das Kindergeld eine Vorauszahlung ist auf eine mögliche Einkommensteuerrückerstattung gem. Günstigerprüfung gem. § 2 Abs. 6 EStG. Demzufolge bin ich zusätzlich zu Unrecht versteuert. Gem. Anl. 8 wird der Eindruck erweckt, dass das Vollstreckungsgericht für meinen Antrag zuständig ist, weil eine Vollstreckungsmaßnahme vorliegt. Aber nach Auskunft des Vollstreckungsgerichtes ist für meinen Antrag das Vollstreckungsgericht nicht zuständig.

Gem. § 834 ZPO werde ich nicht angehört. D.h. für mich, dass die Finanzbehörde durch selbst erstellte Einspruchsbescheide die Rechtskräftigkeit selbst herstellt und vollstrecken selbst.

Nach meiner Auffassung ist das nicht mit Art. 100 GG zu vereinbaren.
Das gesamte Verfahren ist zu diesem Zeitpunkt nicht mit Art. 1 und Art. 20 Abs. 1 des Grundgesetzes zu vereinbaren.

Ich versichere –nach Belehrung über die Strafbarkeit einer falschen eidesstattlichen Versicherung- die Richtigkeit und Vollständigkeit der von mir gemachten Angaben an Eides statt.

8 T O U S P

An Uachtaráin na hÉireann a Charra,

I am seeking your attention in a matter very close to me, that being a matter of my life and indeed that of my death. At this point I may urge you to attend my issue with simple objectivity rather than fine rhetoric. There have been a sufficient number of words sent across fine tables, sufficient to equal the number of lives spent fruitlessly, but I assure you mine shall not be one of those.

I regret to inform you, if not indeed warn you, that our once gallant Allie, who lost herself in a terrible brown cloak, and through our aid, small though it may have been, was given her own democracy. Sadly, that brown cloak was not destroyed but merely hung in a dark corner, hidden easily from distracted eyes. Hidden through great ambitions and fine words captured in a Grundgesetz on the 23rd May 1949.

However the simple laws, the little ones, the ones of no great importance in themselves but in combination with other little ones and yet another little one of no great importance in itself, are as deadly as the Penal Laws that were in no way ambiguous. Those who are now empowered to see justice done and lay an oath on the Grundgesetz, take out that cloak and wear it. They put it on, that cloak and pass judgement based on laws that are not in the statute books, claim they do not understand the laws they are bound to, find combinations of little laws to abort my fair intentions, as they themselves are above the law. They were trained by the trained who themselves were trained by the trained, but I was not trained, no not I. No Sir, I was schooled by scholars. Schooled by scholars: to look, to see, to think, to do and to learn. I have no difficulties with the trained, even those of the highest status, as they are weak. I am not deterred by their fine apparel as great leaders are naked.

I, however, am alone, and in my loneliness I am powerful. I have not to fear the loss of any gratuity, be it a fine mansion or a stately car or indeed the virtues of passing attentions. No, I am nothing. Yes, a nothing in their eyes, an unsightly parasite that may be starved to death. Killed because he says: Ni raibh se mar sin, olam do glaisín. I will not, weakened, just die on the side of the road with grass in my mouth, I will fight them, and with the wisdom that has been handed down to me through the generations, with the values that have been written in the HessVerf., GG, EU, bunreacht na hÉireann and that have been given to me by my mother, whom I have not sold.

The instruments that were laid down in '98 can be picked up again, I slight not, but that would be too easy. Harder will it be to find a court that will offer me a fair hearing. Will you assist me in finding an impartial court?

If the soldiers who died could answer your question, they would answer that you have failed, but that you now have a chance to give our sacrifice a meaning and not just a cold, stone cross.

Now you may answer my question. I have done.

Regarding: Petition in accordance to Art. 2 Abs. 3 a, b, c, Art. 6 Abs. 1 ICCPR

An Taoiseach, a chara,

Derek O'Barróid is anim dom, is fear Éireanach mé. It is with much distain that I report that the softness and absorption of my native tongue has been lost through the decades of exposure to the cold, systematic and patriarchal words of Anglo Sachsen tribes.

An Taoiseach, may I most humbly and respectfully place before you the following facts for your consideration and your immediate attention. You are required to bring this issue to the immediate attention of Dáil Éireann and in accordance to Art 33 of the Convention, to bring the offending Higher Contracting Party before an impartial an open court of justice, as my fundamental rights Artt. 1, 2, 5, 6, 7, 8, 13, 14 of the Convention are being in infringed upon in a most despicable manner. Beyond such despotism that has occurred on any soil of the EU.

My right to life has been guaranteed through Art. 40 Bunreacht na hÉireann and compounded through Art. 1a EU. However, this right, the most basic of all rights, is at present been incurred upon by representatives of the Federal Republic of Germany.

These representatives through their action and indeed inactions leave me to starve.

The Good Friday Agreement from 10 April 1998 ended what never should have happened in the first place. Conveniently, and in time, so that the Irish could ratify the Treaty of Lisbon, which guaranties civil liberties, at least Art 3a EU suggests this. However, these civil liberties seem not to apply to me, a fair and impartial trial in front of an impartial court is been denied. In its stead Diplock Courts, presided over by, what can be best described as cognitive decrepit and at worst cognitive deficient.

I was not born into another phase of the longest military, political and Human Rights indifference of the world's history, to watch and see the effects of the incendiary bombs, the proxy bombs, to hear the "results" of the shootings as if it were the football match and now to have my life destroyed by our once great allies, once maybe.

Diplomacy, dialog is always an option, however, my attempts at all levels have been ignored Sir, IGNORED. Now, Taoiseach, civil processes will be forced into place, which will cause an diplomatic incident, as I have charged Frau Merkel, Herr Gauck, Herr Voßkuhle, among others with treason, and attempted murder. These people should have what has been denied to me, a fair and open trial.

Why should I starve?

La Hulpe Declaration on the Future of the European Pillar of Social Rights<sup>1</sup>

Preamble

Commitment to the European Social Model

1. We underline the importance of Europe's unique social market economy, combining the pursuit of a highly productive, competitive and innovative economy, attractive for investments, and fostered by a dynamic single market, aiming at full employment and social progress, and a high level of protection. The importance of some of these key elements is also underlined in Article 3 TEU and in Article 151 TFEU. We are steadfast in our resolve in the pursuit of a social Europe, with the aim of creating social and economic progress, ensuring equal opportunities for all, quality jobs and fair working conditions, reducing poverty and inequalities and fostering a just and fair transition to climate-neutrality, building on the Charter of Fundamental Rights of the European Union, the European Social Charter of the Council of Europe and the International Labour Organisation Centenary Declaration for the Future of Work.

EU welfare states: Resilience in the Face of Adversity

2. In recent years, the European Union has been facing an unprecedented series of crises and challenges, such as the COVID-19 pandemic, the rapidly unfolding climate crisis and environmental degradation, the repercussions of Russia's war of aggression against Ukraine, the changes in the geopolitical context, the growing global competition and the related erosion of the EU industrial basis, and the sharp rise in inflation and the subsequent cost of living crisis. Well-functioning labour markets, resilient businesses, an attractive investment environment, robust health systems, inclusive social protection systems and access to affordable and quality public services and services of general interest played an essential role in mitigating the impact of these crises, by protecting millions of people, businesses and jobs, and by reinforcing the resilience of our economy, allowing for a fast recovery.

<sup>1</sup> This Declaration is also a contribution to the Council's Strategic Agenda 2024-2029, adding also context to and to be read together with the discussion on a new European Competitiveness Deal.

The Compass: the European Pillar of Social Rights

3. After its proclamation by the European Parliament, the Council of the EU and the European Commission in 2017, the European Pillar of Social Rights has been serving as a compass to provide guidance in addressing common employment, skills and social challenges, and to foster upward convergence in working and living conditions in the Union. At Union level, the European Pillar of Social Rights does not entail an extension of the Union's powers and tasks as conferred by the Treaties. It should be implemented within the limits of those powers. As reaffirmed by the EU Leaders in the Porto Declaration in 2021, the implementation of the Pillar at Union and Member State level is a shared political commitment and responsibility, with due regard to their respective competences and the principles of subsidiarity and proportionality. The 20 principles of the Pillar are meant to be implemented taking due account of different socioeconomic contexts, the diversity of national systems and the role and autonomy of the social partners.

Prioritising the European Pillar of Social Rights

4. We underline that progressing on the implementation of the Pillar at the appropriate level should remain a key priority for the European Union and the Member States, as well as for candidate countries. Reaching the 2021 EU headline targets on employment, training and poverty reduction by 2030 is paramount. The Pillar continues to provide the map to navigate today's megatrends and shape related policy responses. Amidst the digital and green transitions, the Pillar fosters the preservation of workers' rights, gender equality, equitable opportunities for skilling, reskilling and upskilling, fair working conditions, adequate social protection and inclusion, and accessible healthcare. The Pillar shall serve as our compass for fostering a fair transition, ensuring that no one is left behind. As demographic shifts unfold, the Pillar provides a framework for adapting policies, supporting families, promoting active and healthy aging, and addressing the diverse needs of a changing workforce and an aging population, all while upholding principles of intergenerational fairness and solidarity.
5. In the face of such transitions, we reaffirm the right and freedom for everyone to access public services and services of general interest of high quality, including social services and essential services, which are crucial for both social and territorial cohesion and sustainable competitiveness.
6. We reiterate that economic and social progress are intertwined, and the European Pillar of Social Rights is part of wider efforts to build a more inclusive and sustainable growth model, and also contributes to the achievement of the Sustainable Development Goals. This fosters social and territorial cohesion and contributes to improving Europe's competitiveness, making it a better place for companies, including SMEs and social economy enterprises, to invest and create quality jobs. In the face of declining productivity growth in the EU and persisting labour and skills shortages, negatively affecting EU competitiveness, we recall that well-designed social reforms and investments can have a positive impact on economic growth, by enhancing human capital and increasing productivity gains and the labour supply, while contributing to social progress.

7. Against all the challenges outlined above, we recall the importance of a full transposition and adequate implementation of the several initiatives agreed upon since 2017, as well as effective monitoring of their continued effectiveness. We welcome the planned review of the 2021 Pillar Action Plan in 2025, which will provide a basis for further actions at EU level with a view to achieving the 2030 EU targets.

Upholding Social Dialogue as a Pillar of Democracy

8. In line with the Val Duchesse Declaration, we reaffirm the indispensable nature of effective social dialogue at the European Union level, as a fundamental component of the European social model and of our European democracy. It improves working conditions and contributes towards our shared goal of making the EU the best place to live, work and do business in. We stress that social dialogue and collective bargaining remain key tools in shaping the ongoing transitions. We call for a reinforcement of European cross-industry and sectorial social dialogue, continued support for the social partners and their agreements, and for the involvement of social partners in EU policy making, including in the implementation of the green transition.

Empowering the Social Partners and Collective Bargaining

9. We recall the importance of the freedom of assembly and association, and workers' and their representatives' right to information and consultation within their workplace and the right to collective bargaining and action. Trade unions and employers' organisations shall enjoy adequate protection against any acts of interference by each other or each other's agents or members in their establishment, functioning or administration.
10. We reiterate our commitment to fully respect the prerogatives and promote the role of trade unions and employers' organisations as the actors for social dialogue.

11. We recall the provisions of the Directive on adequate minimum wages to promote collective bargaining and progressively increase its coverage. We look forward to the forthcoming appointment of a dedicated European Social Dialogue Envoy within the European Commission and the Pact for European Social Dialogue.

Acknowledgment of Civil Society's Role

12. We recognize the role of civil society, in particular regarding policies contributing to the fight against social and economic exclusion and inequalities, and regarding policies affecting underrepresented and vulnerable groups. We value its function in our democracies and stress the importance of safeguarding civic spaces to address the needs of these groups and ensure the efficient implementation of policies targeting them.

Equal Opportunities and Access to the Labour Market

13. In light of the widespread labour shortages and skills mismatches affecting all Member States, further actions promoting a mindset of lifelong learning are needed, in line with the Barcelona Tripartite Statement. The right to quality and inclusive education, training and lifelong learning as set out in Principle 1 of the European Pillar of Social Rights is essential to help all working, unemployed and inactive people and upholding this right requires action. More specifically, we underline the importance of innovative and quality education and training for all. We welcome the momentum created by the European Year of Skills and commit to keeping skills as a policy priority and to updating the Skills Agenda.
14. Public Employment Services are essential for meeting the needs of jobseekers and employers and for offering them effective and accessible services that lead to decent work and skilled personnel, while reducing inactivity rates. We recall the importance of using their knowledge to support EU and national labour market policies and call for further support of their capacity to use data and digital technology. We underline the importance of making full use of untapped labour market potential, including by fostering labour market access and retention, in particular for the long-term unemployed, older workers, underrepresented groups and groups in vulnerable situations. Private employment services also have a role to play in this respect.
15. We are particularly committed to supporting and investing in our young people, as their dynamism, entrepreneurship, talent and creativity is a key determining factor of Europe's current and future prosperity. We underline the importance of the reinforced Youth Guarantee and fair traineeships and apprenticeships.

16. We commit to fight discrimination in society and on the labour market, including in recruitment, and to strive for a Union of Equality. We call for the evaluation of the anti-discrimination strategies and of the possible need for their renewal, including those expiring in 2025, and for deepening the work on the EU equality, anti-discrimination and anti-racism frameworks to combat discrimination based on sex, racial or ethnic origin, religion or belief, disability, age or sexual orientation through an intersectional approach. In this context, we recall the importance of promoting Roma equality, inclusion and participation.
17. We recognise the important progress made to advance gender equality at the EU level, which should be reinforced to overcome all remaining obstacles to gender equality and ensure the full realization of women's rights. We call for continued actions under the areas of the Gender Equality Strategy, as well as its possible renewal, pursuing a dual approach combining gender mainstreaming with specific measures, while fostering intersectionality. We also call for continued action to tackle gender segregation and to close the gender employment, pay, pension and care gaps and for necessary measures to eliminate gender stereotypes. We also call for determined action to combat all forms of violence against women and domestic violence and harmful gender stereotypes.

Fair Working Conditions

18. We are determined to fully exploit the opportunities that new technologies and digital ecosystems bring for innovation, increased productivity and competitiveness. However, uncertainties persist surrounding the progressive proliferation of platform work, artificial intelligence and algorithmic management on workplace dynamics. Further evaluation and additional actions may be required to ensure fair working conditions in key areas for the digital age such as telework, the right to disconnect, incorporating the 'human in control' principle for artificial intelligence in the world of work, regulating algorithmic management, and information and consultation of workers.
19. We strive to bring more people into employment, increase productivity and improve working conditions and work-life balance, including through social dialogue and collective bargaining. We stress the need to recognise skills and qualifications within the EU, in an inter-operable way, including those of third country nationals. We take note of the Action Plan on Labour and skills shortages in the EU. Further steps at EU and national level, involving social partners, are needed for its implementation. We also take note of the "Demographic change in Europe: a toolbox for action".

20. We will take measures to foster fair and effective labour mobility across the European Union. Initiatives to improve the ability to detect fraud and abuse, as well as increasing the capacity and enhancing the cross-border cooperation of national labour inspectorates may also contribute to further improving working and living conditions, for EU and third country nationals, with special attention to measures in the areas of sub-contracting and agency work. Counselling and support for mobile workers as well as improving access to information for workers, enterprises and social partners should be supported. The forthcoming evaluation of the European Labour Authority represents an opportunity to reflect upon its further development, its role and competences.
21. While it is a priority to preserve and create new jobs to boost the economic performance of the Union, equal attention should be paid to the quality of these jobs. Decent working conditions are vital to attract and retain workers, while strong collective bargaining, adequate and fair wages, supporting inclusive growth and preventing in-work poverty are essential to restore the labour share of income. We recall the key role of the social partners in this domain.
22. Reinforcing collective bargaining and social dialogue as well as promoting employee involvement and workers' and their representatives' right to information, consultation and participation, is key for a flexible and inclusive adaptation to the upcoming changes in the European labour market and to enable them to have an active role in anticipating and managing the digital and green transitions. In this respect, mutual trust and cooperation between employers and workers and their representatives is essential.
23. The social economy proposes a model of social and economic development capable of offering high-performance, inclusive and sustainable economic activities that serve the collective interest. We recognise the added value of the Council recommendation on developing social economy framework conditions, also in the context of the San Sebastian Manifesto and the Liège Roadmap for Social Economy in the EU.
24. In relation to occupational safety and health, we reconfirm the "vision zero" approach aiming to prevent work-related deaths. While respecting the role of the social partners, further evidence-based adaptation of the relevant regulations and frameworks may be considered to better incorporate psychosocial risks, e.g. those linked to the digital transition, including negative impacts on mental health. With regard to specific hazards stemming from climate change, such as heat stress or severe weather events, it is important to encourage their prevention. In addition, it is important to speed up the setting of minimum standards regarding hazardous substances and to foster the evolution towards substituting them, with particular attention to the prevention of occupational cancers. We reaffirm the need to pursue efforts to prevent, remedy and eliminate violence and harassment at work.

25. The experience of the European instrument for temporary Support to mitigate Unemployment Risks in an Emergency (SURE) and its ongoing evaluation may provide lessons.
26. We emphasize the importance of fostering work-life balance. We recommit to reaching the renewed Barcelona targets on early childhood education and care and recall the importance of investing in universally accessible, affordable, high-quality childcare, including by guaranteeing workforce professionalisation and fair working conditions. Further implementing and strengthening the European Child Guarantee is key, including with an improvement of its monitoring.

Social Protection and Inclusion

27. While there is a need to safeguard the fiscal sustainability of pension systems, continued efforts are also needed to improve the adequacy of pensions. At the EU level, a strengthened coordination between the delivery of the Ageing Report, the Pension Adequacy Report and the Long-Term Care Report would ensure complementarity and coherence of monitoring.
28. While addressing existing and increasing needs in the health and long-term care sectors, a strong focus on prevention as well as adequate, equal and affordable access to care is key. Taking into account national contexts and division of competences, action could include addressing workforce needs, with attention to training and working conditions and support for collective bargaining in the care sector.
29. Labour market transformations reinforce the need for a continuous improvement of the adequacy of national social protection systems. It is thus a key priority to intensify mutual learning and further monitor the implementation of the Council Recommendation on access to social protection for workers and the self-employed, while respecting the diversity of national social protection systems.
30. To make social security coordination future-proof, more legal certainty, more transparency and more cooperation between Member States is needed. To ensure the portability of social security rights within the Union and make our social protection systems more user-friendly for mobile citizens, workers and employers, and to facilitate enforcement and combat illegal practices, we call for continued steps to further implement and complement the Electronic Exchange of Social Security Information system and for a comprehensive vision on digitalisation.

31. We underline the need to give effect to the right and freedom of access for all to accessible, affordable and high-quality public services and services of general interest. While taking into account national contexts, we emphasize the importance of investing in high-quality services, taking into account the specific needs of vulnerable groups.
32. The fight against poverty and for social inclusion is a core dimension of European welfare states. To make substantial progress towards the EU headline target and tackle the multidimensional issue of social exclusion, we recall the importance of an integrated approach in tackling poverty.
33. The implementation of the Council recommendation on adequate minimum income ensuring active inclusion should play a role in further developing and updating social safety nets at national level, ensuring basic protection of persons in need and effective take-up of their entitlements, while facilitating smooth transitions to the labour market of those who can work.
34. To respect and promote the rights of persons with disabilities, in line with the United Nations Convention on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities (UNCRPD), further steps should be taken to mainstream the disability perspective in all EU policies and to develop an ambitious second phase of the Strategy for the Rights of Persons with Disabilities.
35. For persons with mental health issues, we could build further on the Comprehensive Approach to Mental Health.
36. Homelessness remains an issue in many Member States, along with challenges related to housing affordability and accessibility, particularly in urban areas, to energy poverty and to the high cost of living impacting a broad range of people, but mostly those on low incomes, calling for integrated strategies and follow-up. Taking into account national competences, continued action is warranted on accessible, efficient, green and affordable social housing to meet the housing needs of all, to eradicate homelessness and to promote ‘a housing first’ approach. We recognise the importance of the European Platform on Combating Homelessness.

Governance

37. We reiterate that the European Semester, with its economic and social aspects, should remain a key framework to monitor the implementation of the Pillar, including via the Social Scoreboard, to identify risks to upward social convergence and to monitor the progress achieved towards the 2030 EU and national targets on employment, skills and poverty reduction.

38. We stress the need to continue the work for a common understanding of social investment. We need to fully exploit the potential of skills, labour market and social policies for economic growth, productivity and competitiveness.
39. Renewed efforts to improve evidence-based policymaking are needed. In addition to enhanced mutual learning opportunities, we recall the importance of developing common guidelines on the use of impact assessment and evaluation tools. Furthermore, we stress the need to invest in more timely harmonised EU, national and sub-national statistics and to facilitate access to data for policy design and evaluation purposes, while ensuring compliance with data protection regulations.
40. We call for the European Pillar of Social Rights to be mainstreamed in all relevant policy domains. Ensuring policy synergies is crucial for establishing a high-quality and efficient system by investing in people. To make sure that policies in all domains do not exacerbate poverty or inequality, we recall the importance of strengthening the use of distributional impact assessments. We call for sustainable public procurement, including to promote collective bargaining. In this light, the directives on public procurement could be evaluated and, if needed, further steps could be taken.
41. The European Pillar of Social Rights along with international labour standards should be taken into account in the external action of the EU, including through its trade policy. With a view to the enlargement of the EU, enhanced cooperation with candidate countries, assisting them in the implementation of the social acquis and fostering upwards social convergence, is key. Support to and promotion of social dialogue, social partners and collective bargaining in accession countries is also needed. We equally commit to further cooperation with the countries neighbouring the EU, including through the Union for the Mediterranean.
42. In promoting social rights, the EU should further enhance the cooperation with the Council of Europe and promote the European Social Charter.
43. We reconfirm our commitment to the ILO, including with regard to the definition of global norms, and the values of the International Labour Organisation and welcome the participation of the European Commission, the European Economic and Social Committee and some Member States in the Global Coalition for Social Justice.
